

Dr Benjamin Cheah Tien Eang

MD (Canada), MRCP (Ire), MIntMed (Malaya)

A consultant physician and rheumatologist who is attached to Pantai Hospital Kuala Lumpur. He is a Clinical Associate Professor with the International Medical University and the Deputy Medical Director of IMU Healthcare. He continues to be active in clinical research.

He has a special interest in Healthcare IT and leads the Hacking Health Movement (<http://hackinghealth.my>) in Kuala Lumpur.

He is the President of the Malaysian SLE Association (<http://lupusmalaysia.org>) and serves in the executive committee of the Arthritis Foundation Malaysia (<http://www.afm.org.my>).

He founded Medicine Malaysia (<http://medicinemalaysia.com>) website.

Also part of the Targeted Ultrasound Initiative Committee of the Malaysian Society of Rheumatology.