

Chakaphan Sookcharoen

The Thai Red Cross Society
Thailand

Biography :

Chakaphan Sookcharoen is the Chief of Computer and Network System Group for the Information Technology Centre (TRCS). Chakaphan has been the experience in computer network and tele medicine in organization for almost twenty years.

Chakaphan responsible for computer and network system and tele medicine, tele education to connect national medical education and institution and research. Which started in the project of telemedicine experiment of Asia Broadband Program in year 2005 and activities of the King Chulalongkorn Memorial Hospital, The Thai Red Cross Society and tele education activity in the country.

Chakaphan had vast experience conducting various telemedicine and tele-education activities using Coder/Encoder (H.264), DVTS, Scopia Desktop, Vidyo, WebX and H.323 system.