

Bio of Mr Mohammad Rafizan Ramliy, University of Putra Malaysia

Mr Rafizan works as a multimedia engineer in AV Broadcasting Section, InfoComm Development Center (IDEC), University of Putra Malaysia. He is involved with audio visual and multimedia for the past 10 years and he is responsible to plan for the university video conferencing infrastructure and supporting AV activities especially related to video conferencing. He is very familiar with telemedicine, remote teaching including distance learning, online meeting and viva session where he had setup the facility and system for user to use as video conferencing tools. He graduated from University of Putra Malaysia, Malaysia 1998 in Electronic and Computer Engineering.