

Biography :

Mr. Ti-Chuang Chiang, B.Sc. was a Medical Physicist. He took 21 years to serve at Department of Radiotherapy, National Taiwan University Hospital.

16years ago, he transfers to Division of Medical Informatics, College of Medicine, NTU as Senior Technician. Education Technology became his major interesting. There are many medical distant learning and Telemedicine's project at NTU was supported with his IT skill.

Mr. Chiang is currently at International Medical Physics Certification Board (IMPCB). Serving as Secretary General to assist the international medical community in achieving both performance excellence and contributions to health care.